(as of the Wednesday, March 27, 2013 US Close)

Equities: DJIA (cash): Push above 13,780-13,960 reinvigorated by consistent trading above 14,050 and 14,350. Bears need to push back below 14,350 for any chance now.

June S&P 500 Future: Drop from 1,558.50 target looked bad, but underlying support still intact unless 1,526-30 (gaps and MAs) support is violated. Daily MACD DOWN, basing.

RES: 1,558.50; 1,570-1,573.50; 1,586.50 (all-time high)

SUPP: 1,550-52; 1,542-38; 1,532; 1,526; 1,510-05; 1,485-90; 1,474.50

DAX (cash): Not so surprising stall in face of Cyprus and Italian problems, yet seemingly underpinned by US strength. Daily MACD DOWN means 7.750 support more critical now.

Government Bond Futures: Recent push higher on European troubles is impressive, but Cyprus Crisis likely needs to encourage more equities weakness to foster still higher levels after the extensive govies rally. Otherwise primary government bond markets may be ready for a downside reaction. That said, the June Bund has achieved levels that would have seemed bizarre just a couple of weeks ago, and next supports are as nearby as 145.00 and 144.00 area. June Gilt and T-note also only up into key resistances once again, so it is especially important to watch June S&P 500 future into 1,558.50 resistance.

JUN T-note: RES: 132-08/-05; 133-04/132-24; 133-10/-08; 134-04/133-26; 134-15

December 2013 Short Money Forward Futures: What can say? Since early 2011 short money contracts had great UPSide run defying all the central bank hike opinions. That's the history of deep discounts in forwards, and the previous push on the upside seemed to indicate all central banks were on a path toward 0.00% base rates. However, the more important decision now evolves to base rate expectations after the near term return to questionable environment in Europe. And that means more than just Italian election disruptive influences with Cyprus now in mix. Even before that LTRO reimbursements to the ECB were below estimates, indicating concerns about fragility of the economy. All of which should underpin the Short Money forwards even if equities remain very strong in near term. Quite a bit may rest with June S&P 500 future decision in the 1,558.50 area.

USD INDEX: Now up on euro's troubles after up previous on equities rally could foment visions of 'Teflon' greenback. Yet this is mostly on the weakness of the euro, so caution is advised pending whether EUR/USD remains below 1.2860 or rebounds to 1.3000 area.

EUR/USD: While major 1.3450-1.3550 resistance temporarily violated, spill back below it was a fresh DOWN Break with both MACDs DOWN; as they remain at present. The serial failures below mid-1.3200 and 1.3170-1.3200, and now the 1.2950-1.3000 trend support 1.2860 Tolerance at makes critical resistance. Much below it 1.2570-00 next support.

Yet serial failures below 1.6000-1.5950, 1.5750 and 1.5500-1.5450 led to failure of major 1.5268-33 multi-year lows; recently resistance on bounce back above 1.5000-1.4950.

USD/JPY: February 2012 rally above key 78.35 and 79.50 were UP Breaks, and holding them on extended summer correction led to a much more major confirmation of the overall UPturn. Above 84.00-.50 and 85.54-.94 led to violation of more critical 87.50-.00 area that was also top of channel UP Acceleration, and 91.00 leading to violation of the 93.80-95.00 Objective that is now support. Weekly MACD UP, but daily MACD DOWN.

AUD/USD: Commodity currency less than impressive on failure below 1.0450-1.0500 after stallout into resistance in 1.0600 area. But with daily MACD back UP, rally above 1.0350 was also an UP Break that is now critical after retest of 1.0450-1.0500 on equities rally.

USD/CAD: Back above 1.00 area congestion and weekly MA-41 since late January led to push back above 1.0100-1.0085 Negated UP Break previous failure, yet with continued topy feeling into 1.0270-1.0300 a question. Daily MACD DOWN, yet weekly still well UP.

Foreign Exchange: Cross Rates: Euro currency weakness is back as dominant secular trend in the wake of Cyprus problems and inability to form Italian government. The return to strength after January ECB meeting 'lack of crisis' confidence was no surprise, yet masked the broader issues which still plague Euro-zone banks. And yet, post-election policy-driven Japanese yen weakness still in force with greenback strong. That technical trend will likely be major focal point on new Governor's first BOJ meeting next week.
