Subject: ROHR-BLOG: HOLIDAY NOTICE: Out All of Next Week

View this email in your browser

Dear Subscribers,

We are off on a family holiday after this weekend through all of next week, and will be incommunicado for much of the week.

In light of the highly erratic ‘macro’ factors affecting the markets at present, we will be providing a somewhat broader Evolutionary Trend View over the weekend.

That will include more extensive technical supports and reminders of recently reinforced resistances (much as we successfully did prior to our annual break over the Christmas-New Year holiday in December.)

For those who are that echelon of subscriber, we will be providing the Weekly Report and Event Calendar earlier than usual over the weekend (most likely on Saturday.) We will also be back timely at the end of next week to deliver the following week’s calendar timely as well.

We wish you all a very successful trading and investment week during what is likely to be a volatile phase next week. And as we always advise under such circumstances, stick with assessing activity around the major levels and do not be fooled by the short-term fluctuations in between.

Best regards-

Rohr
